

Chiang Rai's Night Market

If there is one place in Chiang Rai where you can see Thai culture as its fullest form, it is the night market or night bazaar. Close to the Walking Street types of Thailand, this night bazaar is where you can shop for exclusive handicraft items made of wood, scarves, bags, jewelry and many kinds of souvenirs that reflect Lanna culture and other hill tribal communities, at reasonable prices. After you have shopped till you dropped, satiate your hunger with street food, awesome grilled dishes along with a variety of beers.

Highlights: An authentic Thai massages from experts, folk music performances and other cultural displays that are exhibited at the Night Market.

Location: Close to the bus station, right on the Prasopsuk Phaholyothin Road.

Timing: 18:30 - 23:00hrs

Entry Fee: Free